Topic - Contrasting Countries New Zealand

Today we are continuing with our topic and looking at a new country - New Zealand. Using Google Earth can you fly from your home around the globe to New Zealand? Next I would like you to colour and label a map of New Zealand and learn to recognise or draw or colour the flag it's not easy! If you have time you could find out some facts about New Zealand.

Earth Versions - Google Earth

With Google Earth for Chrome, fly anywhere in seconds and explore hundreds of 3D cities directly in your browser. Roll the dice to discover someplace new, take a guided tour with Voyager, and create your own maps and stories. Coming soon to more browsers.

English

Today we are going to start learning about alliteration. This is where poetry and other writing has lot of words starting with the same sound. Also newspaper headlines often use alliteration.

information about the time or place the book was written or sometimes information about the author or illustrator.

Inside back cover: these notes suggest puzzles and challenges that help children think about their reading. These include 'Find it!' activities that encourage children to revisit the text; 'Share it!' tasks that may involve making or writing something; and other tasks that offer ideas for further reading.

Using the online reading world

If you have access to an internet connection, your child can enjoy reading Bug Club books online as well as in print. Each child has a unique homepage, and can log into it by following these steps:

1. Go to www.activelearnprimary.co.uk
2. Enter the login details.
3. Your child's homepage will appear.

Maths: We do this in school from 11 to 11.50am

Today we are continuing to look at data. We are going to work on Venn diagrams.

Watch the video below and find some items in your house to sort into a Venn diagram. You could use toys, food or whatever else you can think of!

We would love you to have a go at all tasks, but just do what you can. Remember I have personalised all learning tasks so they are right for you and put them into Experience, (I have sent your parents the user and log ins) so log on and have fun! Just remember to mark as completed when you have finished!
